

DANIEL DEAN

Having won his first major talent competition at the age of 14, Daniel Dean is now one of the UK's top entertainers, and has never looked back.

Magic & Illusion has played a very important role in Daniel's career, the standard of which was proven when in 2001, he won the coveted title 'THE BRITISH MAGICAL CHAMPION OF ILLUSION' at Blackpool's Opera House Theatre.

Add to this his ability to sing, dance and act and you realise why Daniel has been completely at home in production shows all over the country during the past few years.

Last year he starred in the summer production at Eastbourne's ROYAL HIPPODROME THEATRE, then followed this up by appearing as Dandini in CINDERELLA in NOTTINGHAM over the Festive period. During the summer of 2006, he finds himself re-booked to appear in the new summer production at the ROYAL HIPPODROME THEATRE in Eastbourne, yet again. Back by popular demand.

He has performed in the presence of HRH PRINCE ANDREW, The Duke Of York, and also PRINCE ALBERT of MONACO in France. He has also worked with many top household names from the world of entertainment, and has appeared in numerous pantomimes, playing such roles as The Genie Of The Lamp, King Rat, and also as an Ugly Sister in CINDERELLA.

For the past year or so he has appeared at leading British Theatres alongside such stalwarts as SIR NORMAN WISDOM, SYD LITTLE, JESS CONRAD and JEREMY SPAKE and has also been entertaining passengers in the lavish theatres on board P & O's most famous cruise ships THE ORIANA and THE OCEANA. Here Daniel performed his amazing Illusions as far afield as Barbados and Monte Carlo.

He has also been starring in the brand new production of ONE NIGHT IN VEGAS, and A LITTLE BIT OF MUSIC HALL alongside popular comedian SYD LITTLE.

DANIEL DEAN is also one of the few members to enter THE MAGIC CIRCLE in London with an immediate degree of AIMC, and on numerous occasions has been invited to be a Special Guest at the MAGIC CASTLE in HOLLYWOOD.
