

ISLA ST.CLAIR

ISLA ST.CLAIR is known to millions of TV viewers for her bubbly personality and natural manner, and is hugely popular as a media personality.

She has won the accolade of "Best Female Television Personality", and her series about folk music "The Song And The Story" won the coveted 'Prix Jeunesse' as the best light entertainment show on European TV. Her appearances on 'Songs Of Praise' boosted the viewing figures for the long-running show by over 25%. Isla has also had several highly acclaimed radio series to her credit including "A Family Tradition" and "Tatties 'n' Herrin".

With her media high-profile, it is sometimes forgotten that Isla is first and foremost a singer - and a brilliant one at that. At the age of 10 she was 'storming' the Folk Clubs, and since then has sung all over the world - from the Troubadour in Los Angeles to a football stadium in Moscow.

She has won the award of "Best Female Folk Singer" and her albums have received critical claim world-wild, including the latest "Scenes Of Scotland". The 'Scotsman' also rated her 'The Best Exponent Of Scottish Songs' and the School Of Scottish Studies still use her early recordings as a definitive interpretation of Scottish Songs.

Isla St.Clair is a great singer and a great personality and she is also one of the nicest people you could hope to meet.

"An Evening With Isla St.Clair" is a memorable one, enjoyed by audiences all over the world.
